on April 28-2014 At about 11:45 PM At 7236 St. yates. The S.W.A.T. police broke in to the Building that I live on the third floor. I heard the noise in the front hall so I came to my front door to find once I opened it, over ten (S.W.A.T.) officers pointing their guns & machine guns at me screaming for me to keep my hands where they could see them. once they established who I was. They, "the (S.W.A.T.) police" to put my hands behind my head, in a cup finger lock position, then for me to get down on my knees, to put my head down on the ground & to crawl out of my third floor apartment door. They, (S.W.A.T.) officers hand cupped my hands behind my back. while on the floor with hand cups on the (S.W.A.T.) officer asked me where is the machine guns at? when I said that I didn't know what the S.W.A.T. officer was talking about.

the (S.W.A.T.) officer reach down took my arm and broke it. I screamed in pain that he broke my arm. The (S.W.A.T.) officer said that he would break my neck if I didn't tell him what he wanted to know. I told the (S.W.A.T.) officer again that I didn't know what he was talking about. More officers came up the stairs. Then the (S.W.A.T.) officer snatched me off the floor from behind by the hand cups, then broke my wrist too. While I was in pain they took me down to a patty wagon. Where I stayed for an hour. Then I was taken to the police station put in to a cell. Then different officers came to the cell took me out the to another inter-view room to question me about machine guns & different types of guns, that I still didn't know anything about. Which is what I said to them too. This went on for a few days. All this time was nothing but pain for me. I asked many of times for medical help. No one helped me for more then 24 hours. Once the new officers came to take me to Bond hearing. But couldn't get the hand cups on my wrist. Because it was so swollen. These Cops was from another station. the officer told the other officer. "that they wasn't going to take me anywhere". Because "yall broke his arm". so yall take him to the hospital. two hours later. the officers from that station came to the cell and told me that if they took me to the hospital I wasn't going to Bond hearing that day. By that time I was in so much pain I had tears in my eyes. they still didn't take me. until after another two officers came to my cell to question me about some machine guns & different type of guns. I told them with tears in my eyes that I didn't know what they were talkin about. Some time after that two other officers came and took me to South Shore hospital. where the doctor "X-Rayed" my arm & said that it was broke in two different places. the doctor ran an (IV) for my pain. then

Then the Doctor said that he had to set my wrist & my arm in a hard cast. But that it was going to take a few hours. Be four he could do that. Because the arm and wrist was so swollen that there was nothing he could do until he got the swelling to go down. so the doctor put eight ice-pads out and wrapped them around my arm & wrist. the swelling went down but not much. so the doctor had to put a soft cast on it while he set my arm & wrist. then he said once I got to where I was going that the county would handel putting on the hard cast. But they never did! and it healed wrong!
